Mission Statement

As a centre of excellence, the Nelson Mandela Museum preserves the legacy, researches, disseminates knowledge and interprets the values of Nelson Mandela. The museum conducts research, conserves collections and educates through exhibitions, publications and other programmes. Our objective is to foster social cohesion and nation building through understanding, preaching and preserving the values and legacy of Nelson Mandela. The museum also strives to promote the historical and cultural heritage of our region. As part of the community, the museum welcomes the active participation by all in its activities.

The Friends of the Museum

The role of the Friends of the Museum is to assist in achieving the goals and objectives by publicising them, organizing events and functions and involving the public in the activities of the museum. As a friend of the museum, your membership subscription helps to support the work and the activities of the museum.

FNMM COMMITTEE

It is envisaged/proposed that the executive committee of the FNMM to manage its affairs will be constituted as follows:

- ❖ CHAIR

- ❖ TREASURER

- ❖ SECRETARY

- ❖ MUSEUM REPRESENTATIVE

- ❖ BOARD MEMBER X 2

- ❖ MEMBERS

This committee will run the affairs and programmes of the FNMM and organise meetings independent of the museum but will be actively engaged in the events and functions of the Nelson Mandela Museum. The FNMM will be the face and ambassadors of the Nelson Mandela Museum wherever they are, they will promote the museum. A programme of action for the whole year must be drafted and speakers drawn from the FNMM, must lined up to speak on various aspects related to museum and heritage issues. It is proposed that meetings be held every second Thursday of the month and contributions made by the speakers be published in the newsletter/magazine of the museum.
