

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE FROM THE NELSON MANDELA MUSEUM

It is with profound sadness and a heavy heart that the Nelson Mandela Museum extends its deepest condolences to the Mcinga family following the tragic loss of their beloved mother-in-law and brother-in-law, Mrs Eleanor Mazamisa (AHH! Nojongile) and Nkosi Mzonke Mazamisa (AHH! Gudlulwandle).

We are deeply saddened by this devastating loss, particularly the tragic circumstances surrounding their passing. At a time when words can hardly express the pain of losing loved ones so suddenly, we stand in solidarity with the Mcinga and Mazamisa families.

To our valued stakeholder and friend, Betusile Mcinga, and to the entire family, may you find strength in the love, memories and legacy left by those who have departed. May God comfort you and carry you through this difficult season. We pray for strength, peace and healing for the entire family.

The Nelson Mandela Museum joins the broader community in mourning this profound loss and in remembering the lives of Mrs Mazamisa and Nkosi Mazamisa, who lived with dignity, served their community and left a legacy of love and strength.

May their souls rest in eternal peace.

On behalf of the Nelson Mandela Museum,
Mr. Mandisi Msongelwa CA(SA)
Acting Chief Executive Officer
